The Daily Courant.

Thursday, July 12. 1705.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated July 9.

Vienna, June 27.

brought Advice, which is confirm'd by feveral Letters that came in Yesterday from Hungary, that General Glockels-berg appearing before Pax with a Body of 5000 Germans and 8000 Rascians, the Malecontents that were posted in and about that Fort, in Number 5000 Men, fell upon him; but being repulsed with great Loss, they abandon'd the Fort and in great Disorder retir'd over the Danube by 2 Bridges; our Men pursu'd them, and overtook many of them, whom they put to the Sword without Mercy. Count Bothiani who commanded these Malecontents was wounded in the Leg. The Army under General Herbeville is march'd out of the Island of Schut, and is encamp'd on St. Peter's Hill: Count Schlick is gone from hence to that Army.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated July 14.

Vienna, July 1. The Emperour has assign'd Three hundred thousand Florins a Year for the maintenance of the Empress Dowager and the three Arch-Dutchess: The Express that was lately sent to our Resident at Constantinople, is return'd hither with Letters importing, That the Grand Seignior and the Divan persist in their Resolution to observe the Treaty of Carlowitz, notwithstanding the repeated Endeavours of the French Ambassadour to prevail with them to break with the Emperour. Count Schlick is made Commissary General of War, in the room of Count Maximilian Breuser, who is appointed Governour of Waradin in Croatia, in the room of the deceased General Caprara. 'Tis consistent'd that the Malecontents have abandon'd the Fort of Pax, and also that of Kumlet, and the two Bridges they had there over the Danube; and that General Glockelsberg found in those Forts several Pieces of Cannon, with store of Ammunition and Provisions, and Baggage; together with a considerable Sum of Money new coin'd by Order of Prince Ragotzki, having on one side the Arms of Hungary, and the Image of the Virgiu on the other.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated July 16.

Vienna, July 4. Yesterday General Harboe of the Danes arriv'd here; and his Troops are expected this Week: 'Tis hop'd the March of these Troops to Hungary will induce the Malecontents to resolve upon an Accommodation, to which they are at present inclinable, as Count Forgatsch is inform'd by a Letter sent to him hither from his Brother who is one of their chief Leaders. The Deputies of the Malecontents are gone again to Hungary, with the Emperor's last Resolutions: Which 'tis said import, among other things, that the Hungarians must make the first Advanceto the Treaty, lay down their Arms, and forthwith enter upon a Negotiation of the said Treaty, before they mention a Guarantee. And it has been signify'd to the English and Dutch Envoys, who are desir'd to go again to Hungary when the Conferences about this Accommodation shall be begun, that the Emperor is not willing to consent to a Guarantee, but that in the Treaty an Expedient may be incerted, equivalent to a Guarantee, that may be more compatible with the Imperial Authority. And thereupon these 2 Ministers are about to write to the Heads of the Malecontents, to advise them not to mention the Guarantee, till all the other Articles are agreed, and that the Treaty wants only to be fign'd: In the mean time, we hear that Prince Ragotski and the other Leaders of the Malecontents that are Roman Catholicks, demand a Guarantee for the secure Enjoyment of their Religion. The Emperor being thoroughly well inform'd by what Means the Defign on the Moselle came to miscarry, has nam'd Count Wels to go to Prince Lewis of Baden, and to several Courts in the Empire, to propose the putting the Affairs of War on a better Foot; and he is to go on to the Duke of Marlborough, and then to the Hague to relieve the Imperial Minister Count The new Levies are carry'd on with Success in the Hereditary Countries, and fome Provinces have already rais'd their Contingents. General Glockelsberg is at present employ'd in attacking a Fort which the Malecontents have over against Fuldwar; in the mean time the Malecontents, to make a Diversion, have appear'd in great Numbers about Pest. and Comorra, have burnt a Magazine of Hay; and taken 8 Barks, from which they made a great Fire upon our Saicks that were tent back from Pax.

From the Paris Gazette, dated July 11.

Venice, June 20. We have Advice by way of Turkey, That the Malecontents have form'd 24 Regiments of Regular Troops; of which nine are of Horse, of 1000 Men each, commanded by the Colonels Sout Janos, Scheweki, Janos Deack, Deack Ferentz, Borbelli Ballas, Hartvuzi, Otskai, Herwert George, Krutai, and Goezi Sigismund; and sisteen of Foot, viz. that of Prince Ragotzi of 2500 Men; those of Berzini, of the Baron Segni, of a certain Polish Gentleman, and of Panlowitz of 2000 Men each; and those of Boudai, Sordai, Ibrahim, Scaloutai, Naggi George, Berza, Kraindai Mickloss, Pangratii, Budo Adam, and Kis Albert, of 1500 Men each: All which amout to 34500 Men; besides the numorous Militia, with which alone they at first maintain'd the War.

From the Paris Gazette, dated July 11. From the Camp before Chivas, June 26. The Prince d'Elbouf was detach'd with 5 Squadrons, to view the Posture the Enemy were in : But having pass'd a Defile, he met 13 Squadrons, who advanc'd to attack him. Only 2 of his Squadrons being got through the Defile after him, he would have turn'd back agen ; but the Enemy finding they were superior, charg'd him without Loss of Time: He was kill'd by a Piftol-shot, and the Sieur de Marsillac Collonel of Horse receiv'd 8 Wounds, of which he is fince dead. Likewise 8 of our Horse were kill'd, and 25 wounded. The Enemy, in their Turn, advancing too far, were charg'd by the Piquet, who put them to Flight, killing 38 Men, and taking 60 Prisoners, with 80 Horses. The Prince d'Elbœuf is extremely lamented, for his Valour and other Virtues. The Duke of Vendome has caus'd the Right of his Army to advance to the River Orco, and his Left is extended to the Po. Batteries being rais'd against the Post of Castagneto and Chivas; he caus'd the Trenches to be open'd the Night between the 23d. and 24th, and they were carried on within 100 Fathom of the Place. The 24th at Night a Battery began to fire, and Yesterday at Noon we began to play upon the Place with 25 Pieces of Cannon,

non, which dismounted the Artillery of the Befieged, and did them great Damage. Within 2 or 3 Days we expect from Casal 60 Pieces of Cannon more, of several Sizes. The Sieur Morangiez, Brigadier, is dangerously wounded in the Shoulder.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated July 14.
Turin, June 24. Eight Days ago the Duke of Vendome advanc'd to Chivas, which he thought his Royal Highness would have abandon'd: He caus'd a Bridge to be laid the same Day over the Po near St. Sebastian, and sent some Ttoops over the River. The next Day a great Number of Troops having pass'd the River, the Enemy march'd towards the rising Grounds about Castagneto: But his Royal Highness made haste to oppose them; and having order'd 4 Regiments of Dragoons to alight, he caus'd them to secure the Posts on that side, till our Infantry had pass'd the Po and march'd into them. Enemy feeing this, did not think fit to attack us but retir'd; which gave Time to his Royal Highness and General Staremberg to cause an Intrenehment to be thrown up, for the better Security of those Posts. The 18th before Day, the Enemy advanc'd on another fide, to attack a Cassine defended by 30 Heydukes, who made such a Resistance, that a Detachment of the Regiment of Staremberg having Time to come to their Relief, the Enemy were beaten off, 200 of their Men being kill'd or wounded, and 20 made Prisoners; of the kill'd or wounded 6 were Officers, and 1 Officer was taken Prisoner. Our Men likewise took 150 Musquets, and 400 Tools for breaking up Ground. Our Men have intrench'd themselves in that Cassine. The 19th the Duke of Vendome sent over the Po all his Dragoons and Carabineers, and most of the Grenadiers of his Army, with 14 Battalions; which the 20th he caus'd to advance towards Castagneto to attack our Troops there: But his Royal Highness took care to make so good Preparation to receive them, that they did hot think it feafito attack us, and march'd back, after they had ply'd us now and then for fome Days with great and finall Shor. While this pass'd at Castagnero, 4 Squadrons commanded by the Count de Breuner fell upon 600 of the Enemy's Horfe, in the Rear of their Army near Chivas; and tho' they were supported by some Companies of Grenadiers, our Men kill'd 200 of them, as also 80 Grenadiers, took 40 Prisoners, and wounded 200. They likewise took 7 or 8 Officers and 1 Standard, without more Loss on our side than of 20 Men kill'd or wounded. Had General Fels, who follow'd with a great Detachment, come up in Time to fall into the Camp of the Enemy, who appear'd to be in a great Consternation, we might reasonably have promis'd our selves a much more confiderable Advantage.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated July 16.
Turin, June 24. The 20th a great Number of French Prisoners, taken about Castagneto, were brought hither; 400 of the Enemy have been kill'd before that Place. The 21st. 600 of the Enemy's Horse were attack'd by 3 or 4 Squadrons of ours, who kill'd about 300 of them, and among them the Prince d'Elbouf and Monfieur Lifle Captain of French Musquetaires, and 7 other Officers of Note.

23d the Monks of Chivazzo retir'd hither From the Amsterdam Courant, dated July 11.

Cazal, June 27. It appears now that the taking of Chivas will coft our Army dear ; for the Strength and Situation of the Place are such, that it may be call'd a little Verue. The Duke of Savoy has fo fortified the Rifing Grounds and Cassines (or Farm Houses) thereabours, that they are so many small Forts. The Ingenier Lapara, who was left Sick at Cremona, is expected to arrive to Morrow in the Camp before Chivas.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated July 17. From the Camp before Chivas, June 30. We have upon the Rising Grounds on the other side of the Po 11 Pieces of Cannon plac'd in Battery, of which 7 Fire upon Castagneto, and 4 batter the Communication on this side. We have 6 other Cannon that Fire upon the Defences of the Place : A Battery of Bombs is raifing, and our Works are advanc'd with in 25 Fathom of the Covert-Way: Affoon as the Parallel is finish'd, we shall raise a new Battery of Cannon, by help of which we hope to be Mafters of the Place fooner than we thought at first. believ'd Brigadier Morangies will recover of his Wound. Monsieur de Monsigni Major General; was wounded to Day in the Face; but not danger-

At the defire of several Persons of Quality, A T the Theatre Royal in Drury-Lane, to Morrow being Friday the 13th Day of July, will be preferred. The Hiftory of King Lear, and his three Daughters. With fevera Entertainments of Singing and Dancing between the Acts.

This Play is Sold by R. Wellington at the Dolphin and Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard, where you may have most Novels.

Loft or Millaid a Note of 1601. 16s. Drawn by Peter Affelin on Mr. Nicholas Goodwin, payable to Mr. John Benfon or Bearer, dated the 11th of July 1705. Alfo a Bank Note for 1021 l. 13 s. 6 d. No. 18, payable to Mr. John Benfon, Dated the 11th of July. It the faid Notes be offer'd in Payment or otherwife, you are deired to ftop them, and give Notice to Mr. Nicholas Goodwin, Scrivener in Exchange-Ally, and you shall have 5 Guine'as, payment being already ftopt at the Place aforesaid.

The Cattle-Tavern in Woodstreet, having the ad-

Ti

to

in T

w

la

to

ra

A

d

The Cattle-Tavern in Woodstreet, having the advantage of a Passage into Milkstreet-Market, being a large House with excellent Vaults, a large Yard, good Schedule, and many Conveniencies six for either a Vintner, a Wine-Cooper, or for any Publick Office, is to be Lett, Inquire of Mr. Guy at the Swan-Tavern in Corshill.

An Essay at the Mechanism of the Macrocosm: or, The Dependance of Essects upon their Causes. In a new Hypothesis, accommodated to our Modern and Experimental Philosophy. In which are solved several Phanomena, hitherto unaccounted for; as the Cause of Gravitation, Motion, Reflection, Refraction, &c. With a Method proposed to find out the exact Rate that a Ship Runs, and consequently the Longitude at Sea. Printed by F. Collins, for Jeffery Wale; at the Angel in St. Paul's Church-Yard.

The Reasonable Communicant of the Papulage.

The Reasonable Communicant: or, An Explanation of the Doctrine of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, in all its Parts, from the Communion Service; in a Discourse between a Minister and one of his Parishioners. The Second Edition Corrected by the Author. Printed for C. Harper, and fold by Charles Smith at the Buck, between the two Temple-Gates in Fleet-street: Where is fold Martialis Epigrammara in Usum Delphini; Love in a Fury, a Novel. The Scriviner's Guide, being new Forms of Presidents, with all other Law Books, Divinity, Miscellanies, Plays, &c.

Just Publish'd A true List of the Royal Navy of England, in the A true Lift of the Royal Navy of England, in the Year 1705. With the particular dimensions of every Ship, as where Built, by whom, Year when, Length of the Gun, Deck, Breadth, Tunt, Men and Guns, with the Queen's and his Royal Highness Prince George's Pictures; Lord High Admiral of England, curiously Engraven on a Copper Plate. Price 6 d. Sold by Ben. Bragg in Ave.marylane. Where likewise may be had a true Printed Lift taken from the Copper Plate; the Pictures excepted, done hy the same Author. Price 2 d.

Just Publish'd The Second Edition of the Peculiar Use and Sig-The Second Edition of the Peculiar Use and Signification of certain Words in the Latin Tongue: or, a Collection of Observations, wherein the Elegant, and commonly unobserved Sence of very near Nine hundred common Latin Words (besides the various Senses of the same Words) is fully and distinctly explained in English Sentences translated from the truest Copies of the purest Latin Writers. To this Edition, besides some Alterations, are added Notes, partly confirming by parallel Places, cited at length from the best Roman Authors, the Usages of such Words as may at sirst View appear surprizing; partly suewing the Similitude of the Latin with the Greek Tongue. The Method new and easie. The whole entertaining to any Person; that has, or would have, a Tasse of Language. By William Wilymott, M. A. Fellow of King's College in Cambridge. To be had at Mr. Fary's Bruggist, near St. Magnus-Church entring London-bridge. Price 4 s. Price 4 8

A Discourse of the Necessity and Usefulness of the Christian Revelation, by reason of the Corruptions of the Principles of natural Religion among Jews and Heathens. By Daniel Whitby, D. D. and Chantor of the Cathedral Church of Sarum. Printed by W. E. for A. and J., Churchil at the Black Swan in Pater-Noster-Row.

This Day will be publish'd

The Oxford Treatment of their Cambridge Friends at the Act, in a Dialogue between Eugenius and Crites. Price 6 d. Sold by B. Bragg in Ave-Mary-Lane.

Dr. William Read, Her Majesty's principal Occulist, who has been so successful in Curing the most difficult Distempers incident to the Eyes, Viz. Wounds, Ulcers, Albugo's, Ungula's, Glaucoma's, Ophthalmia's, or Instantions, Hypochyma's, Sustusions, Amaurosis, Obstructions of the Optick Nerves, or Gutta-Serena; and particularly in Couching of Cataracts (so disficult in its Operation, and surprizing in its Effects) which he performs in less than a Minnte without Pain or Consinement, as he has upon several Thousands, &c. and has lately Cured many of Blindness, occasion'd by the long continuance of the Serophulous Distemper or Evil when judged incurable by many, viz. Francis, the Son of J. Thornton in 3 Cap-Alley upper Shadwel, the Son of Jane Evans in Minor-street near St. Giles's Pound, Margaret Simons in 3 Crown-Court St. Thomas Southwerk, Mrs. Peal at Edmundton, aged 80, Thomas Hodgetts in Great Russel-Street near Mountague-House, and with many more at his House in Durham-yard in the Strand, London, where he or his Brother are constantly to be advised with.